- This form is used only for declaration of double concentration or change of double concentration. If you are changing from a joint concentration to double concentration, print or download two copies of this form. Students must provide one copy of the form to each concentration. If you are a third semester student declaring a concentration for the first time, submit one declaration via an electronic form in my.harvard. and one using this form. If you already declared a concentration and would like to pursue a double concentration, provide a copy of this form to the additional concentration only. Email all copies of the signed forms to enrollment@fas.harvard.edu.
- If you are declaring a singular concentration, joint concentration or changing concentration, submit via an electronic form in my.harvard. Do not submit this form to the Registrar's Office.
- You must be an active Harvard College student within or beyond your third term, and have not applied to graduate, in order to declare a double concentration.
